

MRS. J. B. KENDALL BUYS NEW HOME FROM J. H. NOLAN

Secretary Fisher Leases Former Residence of J. M. Dickinson.

Mrs. J. B. Kendall has purchased from John H. Nolan the new residence at 2144 Wyoming avenue northwest for $37,500. The house is one of three just completed by Mrs. Nolan, and contains fifteen rooms and three baths. It has a twenty-eight-foot front on a thirty-five-foot lot. The houses are modern adaptations of the colonial style, and were designed by Hill & Kendall. The sale was made through the office of Randall H. Hagner.

Fisher Leases House.
Walter L. Fisher, Secretary of the Interior, who, since coming to Washington, has resided at the Highlands, has leased the residence of former Secretary of War Jacob M. Dickinson, at the corner of Connecticut avenue and Bancroft place northwest.

Buyers Three Houses.
Paul V. Porter has purchased from William A. Craig the three-nine-room residences at 1750 to 1754 Oregon avenue northwest for $21,000. The lots are 19.5 by 86 feet each. The houses were built about ten years ago by James E. Miller and were recently remodeled and thoroughly modernized by Mr. Craig. The sale was made through the office of the W. A. Craig Company.

Auction Sales Brisk.
James O'Donnell is the purchaser of six Georgian dwellings which were sold at auction yesterday afternoon by Thomas J. Owen & Son. He bought the two-story dwellings 3308-10-12 Prospect street and the three at 1214-16-18 Thirtieth street northwest for $15,750. H. W. Fort bought the house at 2306 Prospect street for $2,000. A large number of bidders were present at the sales and bidding was brisk.

Begin Club House.
Frank L. Wagner has completed the demolition of the old Gothic residence at the northeast corner of I and Seventeenth streets northwest and today commenced the erection of the new home for the Army and Navy Club upon the site. The complete description of the palatial new club house to be erected was printed in the Times several months ago. The old house which has been removed was once occupied by the British embassy and there was entertained as Prince of Wales King Edward VII. of England. The house was the purely Gothic piece of residence architecture in the city.

WALL STREET ENJOYS BULL MARKET, WITH SHARP GAINS MADE THROUGHOUT LIST.

NEW YORK, May 17.—The track is clear and Wall Street is enjoying the experience that comes with a sudden and complete recovery from a serious illness. It is a gay old Wall Street. From the usual 250,000 to 350,000 shares, the daily business of the last few months, it jumped yesterday to over the million share record, and today's sales will be materially larger than yesterday's. Traders looked for a little natural reaction following the pace of yesterday, but they looked in vain.

Shorts tried their best to stop the advance, but their efforts only increased the short line, while everything they offered was quickly absorbed. Houses that have not been doing 500 shares a day were swamped with orders, and room traders who have been scalping for an eighth of a point found their time taken up at attending to their orders.

Wall Street's relief was real and earnest—the relief of the business world was just about the same, and the most careful and consistent observers are of the opinion that there is a clear track ahead, with heavy export trade and growing crops helping the situation.

Wall Street does not look for trouble until the Presidential year, and in the interim there will be action. There seemed to be few actual stocks for sale. People and financial interests who have carried stocks all winter into the face of the decisions will not sell now, and old-time bulls who have been building every strong point are anxious to get back their holdings.

Good judges believe that the market is discounting the revival that will come to trade and commerce as a result of the "reasonable" and "unreasonable" claims.

The advances were general throughout the list, although it was a market where the leaders were well to the fore, making greater average improvement than the secondary groupings. Union Pacific, Southern Pacific, Reading, and Steel were the most important factors in the gain in the Union Pacific. The gain in the Union Pacific, indeed, the "Big 4" all showed about the same advance.

Copper and Steel were decidedly strong, the former advancing 1/2 and the latter nearly 2 points. Lehigh Valley moved up 3 points under the inspiration of activity in the market.

The general run of stocks were about 1/2 of a point higher. Midway in the second hour of the afternoon Reading was 1/2, Union Pacific 1/2, and Steel, 1/2.

The market was very strong, bears badly scared, and offerings were few. There might be some taking in the ax, but there are no indications of weakness at present.
